Beware of Scrofula

Scrofula is probably more general than any other disease. It is insidious in character, and manifests itself in running sores, pustular eruptions, boils, swellings, enlarged joints, abscesses, sore eyes, etc. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels all trace of scrofula from the blood, leaving it pure, enriched, and healthy.

"I was severely afflicted with scrofula, and for over a year had two running sores on my neck. Took five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and consider myself cured." C. E. LOVEJOY, Lowell, Mass.

C. A. Arnold, Arnold, Me., had scrofulous sores for seven years, spring and fall. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him.

Salt Rheum

William Spies, Elyria, O., suffered greatly from erysipelas and salt rheum, caused by handling tobacco. At times his hands would crack open and bleed. He tried various preparations without aid; finally took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and now says: "I am entirely well." "My son had salt rheum on his hands and on the calves of his legs. He took Hood's Sarsaparilla and is entirely cured." J. B. STANTON, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

Cholera Stricken Hogs a Chicago.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—During the past week the health inspector condemned 170 cholera stricken hogs. Yesterday, in the slaughter house at the yards he condemned twenty-nine that had been killed, dressed and ready for market, to various scaplers who do business in the yards. The puffed and discolored flesh inside and out, and sickening smell was awful.

FIRE RECORD.

A Big Oil Blaze at Cleveland.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 7.—At 2:20 this morning a fire started in the Doane oil works, which caused an explosion of three stills. The overflowing and flaming oil emptied into Kingsbury creek and ran into the Standard Oil yards, setting fire to the agitators south of the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad track. Loss in oil, $5,000; on plant estimated at from $30,000 to $40,000.

A Bad State of Affairs at Rock Springs.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

CHEYENNE, Sept. 7.—The Leader's special from Rock Springs says the miners have returned to work. They declare that no less than twenty-five Chinese were shot down inside the burned buildings. The Chinamen are still arriving at the stations east and west, almost dead from fright and weak from fatigue and lack of food. All are shipped to Evanston by the company. They reiterated the statement that many have died on the hills from wounds received in the attack upon them. It is reported that the white miners at Almy, in the western end of the Territory, have notified the Chinese laborers in the mines that they must leave inside of three days, and that the Union Pacific has guaranteed their removal within the time specified.

Damage by Frost.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 7.—Light frosts are reported from several parts of the State. The greatest damage was about Berlin, where it is reported that two-thirds of the cranberry crop is destroyed.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

ing destroyed. The damage in Charles county is estimated at $10,000.

Foreign News.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—Later dispatches respecting the German occupation of Yap state that the Governor of that island wished to resist the landing of the German marines, but the commander of the Spanish man-of-war, San Quinton, refused to agree with the Governor, or to lend the latter any assistance. It is generally believed that the commander of the Spanish man-of-war, Velasco, which was expected at Yap on the 25th of August, carries with him energetic orders.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—The official report concerning the Cabinet Council held Saturday afternoon, at which King Alfonso presided, says the government can not now make public the measures decided upon, but that country may be assured they were of the energetic character. The report also says that the government decided that, negotiations respecting outrages on an integral part of the Spanish Territory, are impossible.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—There were 1,238 new cases of cholera, and 797 deaths Saturday, throughout Spain.

Prussia has sanctioned the plan for a projected ship canal, which it is proposed to cut from Kiel on the Baltic, to a point on the lower Elb, near Chuxhaven, in the German Ocean. The entire cost of the work is placed at 150,000,000 marks. The bill for the construction of the canal will be submitted to the Bundesrath after the vacancy.

M. Goblet, the French Minister of Public Instruction, has issued an official circular to the French Episcopate, as to the attitude the church may adopt in the coming general elections in France. He notifies the clergy that they are perfectly free to exercise their own discretion about their own votes, but enjoins upon them neutrality concerning the votes of their parishioners, and forbids them to use any influence upon the people in favor of any party. The clerical press has received the circular with derision. The religious editors argue that indifference on the part of the church in the face of the two parties arrayed against each other for and against Christianity, would be not neutrality, but desertion from the faith.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Le Paris says, editorially, France has no reason to meddle with the Spanish-German quarrel, and that France should remember 1870. M. Freycinet, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, has telegraphed Baron Des Michels, French Ambassador to Madrid, to observe the greatest prudence during the difficulty at Madrid over the Caroline affairs.

ITALY.

ROME, Sept. 7.—The five cases of cholera reported at Novara were among the troops engaged in the maneuvers at that place. Ten more suspicious cases of sickness have occurred at Parma, Novara and Geneva.

AUSTRIA.

VIENNA, Sept. 7.—The employment of bicyclists as scouts for the intelligence department in military maneuvers here proved a great benefit. They surpassed the horsemen in endurance.

Looks Like Business.

The court house hummed with life to-day. The grand jury is grinding out criminal indictments and the commissioners are at work on routine business.

Judge S. M. Hench, a little tanned but with a rosy hue from the eastern air, convened the superior court this afternoon and began to call cases for trial.

Judge Edward O'Rourke sat in the circuit court calm and collected but with a business air amid pleasant surroundings. He admitted Edward Helmke to citizenship, acquitted Grant Hunker of adultery and gave John C. Pfeiffer a judgment for $254 against Peter Note-stine et al.

The Equine Paradox.

Professor Bartholomew's "Equine Paradox" holds the boards at the Temple this week. This is a novel, genteel and very amusing horse show and THE SENTINEL can recommend it to lovers of "man's best friend" and all who like to see what wonders a trained horse can work. The show people gave a nice street parade at noon.

The Bicycle Races.

There were two exciting five mile bicycle races out on the St. Joe road this afternoon under the supervision of Capt. Clem Edgerton, and quite a party assembled to witness the genteel and amusing sport. The first race was free for all, with seven entries for a Butcher's cyclometer, worth $10. The second race was between wheelmen of this year, with five entries for a $5 cyclometer.

The Spanish-German Trouble To-day.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—Count Von Hutzfeldt, in his statement to Count Benomar, regarding the order that had been given to the German gunboat, meant that the gunboat had been forbidden to hoist the German flag where the Spanish flag had already been hoisted. It is said the Spanish flag was hoisted before the German colors, and Bismarck says if Spain can prove it he will relinquish claims to the island and withdraw his troops if Spain does, pending the arbitration. All is quiet at Madrid.

IN COURT.

The Editor of the Pall Mall Gazette and Others on Trial.

By Cable to THE SENTINEL.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Mr. Stead, the editor of the Pall Mall Gazette, Mrs. Jarrett, Bramwell Booth, Mrs. Coombe, Mr. Jacques and Mme. Maury, the defendants in the so-called abduction case, appeared in the Bow street police court to-day in answer to charges against them. Mr. Stead conducted his own case, while counsel represented the others. Excitement in the court room and in the vicinity has seldom, if ever, been equalled. The police were powerless to control the mob, who assembled to hear the proceedings. Members of the salvation army were arriving all morning in cabs and were hooted and jeered by the crowd on their way into the court room, which was a compactness of people. A number of reporters were present; also members of the salvation army, and quite a sprinkling of brothel keepers. Mr. Poland, solicitor for the treasury, opened the case for the crown with a long speech. He demanded the committal of all the defendants for trial. The child, Eliza Armstrong, was placed on the witness stand and identified Mrs. Jarrett as the woman who secured her from her mother on the plea of needing her assistance to do house work. The girl then gave in detail all the circumstances connected with her abduction.

YACHT RACE.

It is for the American Cup.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

SANDY HOOK, Sept. 7.—The bay is dotted with yachts of every size and shape. Each is crowded with people, who have come to witness the race for the American cup between the British yacht Genesta and the American yacht Puritan.

The program of the committee governing the international race for the American cup between American yacht Puritan and the English yacht Genesta, is as follows: The first race will be twenty statute miles to windward or to leeward and return from Scotland light ship, if it is possible to make a course from that point, if not from Sandy Hook light ship.

SANDY HOOK, Sept. 7.—1:45 p. m.—The yachts have started, the Puritan at 1:25 and the Genesta at 1:36. The wind is light, from the southeast.

SANDY HOOK, Sept. 7.—2:30 p. m.—The yachts are now standing to eastward. The Puritan is to windward and about half a mile ahead. With the present wind it is not expected the race can be sailed within the prescribed time—seven hours or no race.

AWAY AHEAD.

SANDY HOOK, 4 p. m., Sept. 7.—The Puritan has gained three minutes and forty-five seconds so far and is leaving the Genesta all the time.

The Striking Miners.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—There is no change in the situation of the River coal miners strike to-day.

The national association of retail druggists is in session. The past year has been satisfactory to them and delinquents have been asked to pay up dues.

THE WABASH.

The Men Go to Work—A Rumor that Mr. Barnes Will Resign.

Master Mechanic Morris reinstated all Wabash men who went to work this morning. Everything is quiet and harmonious in the different departments. General Master Mechanic Barnes, in company with Master Mechanic Morris, made a close inspection of each department this morning.

It is rumored in railroad circles that Mr. Barnes has tendered his resignation. The boys here don't believe it, at least, they hope it is not true. THE SENTINEL is inclined to believe it a fact, with regret.

Police Court Celebrities.

There was a fragrant gang at police court this morning. John Clark, James Thompson, Carl Spathe, Max Melda, Carl Young and Wm. Lisky were arraigned for vagrancy. They were lectured and ordered to skip the town.

Nicholas Hock was shooting at the reservoir and was held for disturbing the peace.

Alex. McDowell, of Sheldon, got on a spree and gave bail. Alex. was regaled in a red shirt and necktie of the same hue.

John Yan, a vicious tramp, held up a German near the Pittsburgh water tank and robbed him of a meershaum pipe. Sheriff Nelson and Jailer Mungeon put irons on the fellow and he will be held for grand jury investigation.

Communicated.

The Fort Wayne Railroad Y. M. C. A. is worthy of a building of its own, affording more advantages for the prosecution of its work. Elkhart, Ind., is erecting a building for its Railroad Y. M. C. A. and Union City, Ind., has one completed over a year ago. The Troy, N. Y. railroad association has a splendid building, and East St. Louis has one. The times, it is true, are close, but not more here than in other places, and the following Y. M. C. A. building funds have recently been secured: Atlanta, Ga., $80,000; Milwaukee, Wis., $53,645; Nashville, Tenn., $37,920; Kansas City, Mo., $16,000; Detroit, Mich., $11,000; St. Joseph, Mo., $25,000; Selma, Ala., $14,000; Oshkosh, Wis., $7,000; Northfield, Minn., $5,000; Williamsport, Pa., $2,566; Wilkesbarre, Pa., $1,000.

The New Assessor.

This morning Capt. Charles Reese entered on his duties as city assessor. Mr. Reese is a thorough business man, honest and square and has had much experience in municipal affairs as councilman and THE SENTINEL believes he will make an admirable officer. Louis Joquel steps out and down from a position he has honored and elevated to the highest standard of excellence. He was fearless and scrupulous, but fair to all people. He was one of the best assessors the city ever had.

East Bound Freight.

The shipments of flour, grain and provisions from Chicago to eastern through stations by the pool lines during the week ending Saturday, Sept. 5, amounted to 35,082 tons, against 31,302 tons during the preceding week, an increase of 3,720 tons. Shipments of flour decreased 410 tons, those of grain increased 1,965 tons, while those of provisions increased 2,165 tons. The Pittsburg road carried 5,207 and the Nickel Plate 3,388 tons.

President Cleveland Again at Home in the White House.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—President Cleveland arrived at 8 o'clock this morning and was immediately driven to the white house, where after breakfasting he settled down at once to work. The president, who is well tanned by the sun and who appears much improved by the trip, says he has had an excellent time and enjoyed perfect health. He has not been ill a single day since he left and is at a loss to understand how the report of his serious sickness originated.

It is stated at the white house that the president proposed to dispose of pending questions before the society season, considering matters to be brought to the notice of congress in his annual message.

Chief Engineer H. H. Stewart, of the United States Navy, and President of the Board of Examiners at Philadelphia, will be placed on the retired list.

In the case of John H. Dickinson, ex-Superintendent of the Washington Pension Building, charged with stealing a flag, the government failed to prove the charge. Dickinson was acquitted.

One of the effects of the withdrawal of the $1 and $2 notes from circulation is shown in the increased demands on the Treasury for $5 and $10 bills, and it was found necessary to transfer a large amount of these notes. Treasurer Jordan prefers this method to transportation where large amounts are involved.

KILLED HIM

In Defense of His Wife.

By Telegraph to THE SENTINEL.

GREENVILLE, Ohio, Sept. 7.—On Saturday night, John Essick shot and killed William Wise. Essick, while in the back yard, heard his wife scream in the house and entering he saw William Wise, a neighbor, run out at the front door. Seizing a shot gun, he fired sending a shot through Wise's body. Wise died at midnight. Before his death he denied he was at Essick's house with any wrong intention.

To the Public.

We, the undersigned Photographers, wish to call the attention of the public to the fact that we have concluded to meet the warring rates of those parties connected with our profession who from lack of skill and artistic ability have been obliged to reduce the price of photographs below living rates, after having signed an agreement adopting a scale of prices agreeable to all, yet but one half the price asked for our work, and time has shown them unable to sustain themselves at such a rating, they having again reduced without consulting all parties concerned, thereby forfeiting their obligation. We now propose to meet them at their own prices and give the public the benefit of our experience at the same price of the novice.

It should be borne in mind that we show no work but that which can be daily duplicated at our Studios, it never yet having been necessary for us to employ an artist to fill our show cases with pictures to delude the public.

For the present Cabinet Photographs will be made by us at $2.00 per dozen.

CHOLERA is rapidly moving westward and will soon appear in this country. In order to prevent disastrous effects from its ravages every preventive should be employed, and the system should be in perfect condition. At this season of the year the system is in a weak state and easily susceptible to dangerous disease. Pain in the back, weariness, lassitude, headache, dyspepsia, indigestion, kidney and liver complaints are but the result of neglect. During the last visitation of cholera to this country no medicine was found equal to Misher's Herb Bitters, both as a preventive and cure, and it has been equally successful in all the diseases above mentioned. It renews and invigorates the blood, restoring to health and strength, and thus shielding the system from disease.

Ask your druggist for Misher's Herb Bitters. If he does not keep it do not take anything else, but send a postal card to Misher's Herb Bitters Co., 286 Commerce Street, Philadelphia.

OFFICIAL PAPER COUNTY AND CITY.

MONDAY, SEPT. 7, 1885.

REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN COOPER, of Pennsylvania, has been annoying republican government clerks at Washington with political assessment circulars for money to be used in the Pennsylvania campaign. It is time for the administration to enforce the civil service law on Mr. Cooper or remove the clerks from positions that attest their allegiance to a party of spoils, not civil service reform.

J. O. HENDERSON will sever his connection with the Kokomo Dispatch in order to devote his time more exclusively to the duties of his position as revenue collector of this district. Mr. Henderson leaves a bright, newsy paper, created by his own energy and hatred of stale, stereotyped matter. He believed a paper should be original or nothing and his influence will be missed in the Hoosier newspaper field.

The republicans of Indianapolis, with Major Calkins as chairman, nominated Caleb S. Denny for mayor over Gen. J. R. Carnahan, Gen. George F. McGinnis, Harvey B. Stout, William Wallace and John L. McMaster. George T. Brueing was renominated for city clerk. The republicans distinguished themselves by defeating two soldiers, and the republicans love soldiers so dearly, they say. Tom Cottrell, the democratic candidate, can beat the ticket.

A city can never thrive unless its people unite to build it up. Associated energy and capital make cities and THE SENTINEL sees the necessity of something of the sort in Fort Wayne. It is not expected that a board of trade can be established here, but the live, energetic men of the city can associate themselves to boom their home, and establish new industries and labor for their success. The Fort Wayne Organ company, the Summit City Soap works, the Peter's Box and Lumber company, the Electric Light company, the Fort Wayne Furniture company and numerous other institutions can be cited as evidence that THE SENTINEL's point is good and sound. Who will move in this important matter?

September 4, 1885.
Gen. J. J. Black, Commissioner:
Sir—I have to report that this office is to-day in receipt of over 100 letters to its employees, postmarked, "Philadelphia, September 3d." I herewith submit a sample of three letters, one enclosed, of which the following is a sample:

HEADQUARTERS REP. STATE COM.,
ST. CLOUD HOTEL, PARLOR, C.
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.

Chairman Thomas V. Cooper (dictated):
DEAR SIR:—We desire an early subscription to the State Committee, and as liberal as you can afford to make it. If the Republicans of Pennsylvania win a decisive victory this year, it will prevent any agitation or disastrous change of office by the incoming administration, and pave the way for the overthrow of the Democratic State and National administration. We propose to push the work of the State Committee with the utmost vigor until election day. Please send your subscription as early as possible, by check or money order, or call at headquarters.

Yours truly,
THOMAS V. COOPER,
Chairman.
To J. Frank Miller, Pension Office, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.
Gov. Warren, of Wyoming Territory, telegraphed to the President and Secretary of War at Washington, requesting assistance from the federal troops in suppressing the disturbance at Rock Springs, Wyoming Territory, caused by the massacre of the Chinese laborers by miners. A copy of the telegram was forwarded to Secretary Endicott at his home in Massachusetts. Adjutant General Drum had a conference with Secretary Bayard as to the best course to pursue in the matter, and decided, in view of the informal call for troops, not to disturb the President with the question, but instead to issue orders for the United States troops to proceed to the scene of the disturbance for the purpose of protecting the United States mails. The soldiers are to keep open the route by which the mails are carried, and to prevent an interference with them. Adjutant General Drum therefore telegraphed Gen. Schofield, at Chicago, to order two companies to proceed at once to the scene of the disturbance for the purposes indicated. It is expected that the presence of the troops will tend to prevent further trouble. Under the law the President can only recognize appeals for federal assistance when made by the Governor and Legislature of the State or Territory. In the present case, Gov. Warren alone made the appeal, but neglected to give the desired information to the Legislature.

Thomas Wentworth Higginson has been asked to write a life of Mrs. Helen Hunt Jackson.

Dean Swift was fond of a joke. The person afflicted with dyspepsia is unable to appreciate the most luscious joke. If he would just invest a dollar in a bottle of Misher's Herb Bitters his laugh would soon be heard among the merriest. Charles Forrey, of Davenport, Iowa, writes: "For nearly two years I was the victim of dyspepsia of the most pronounced form. My appetite was gone and no matter what I ate, the meal would always be followed by nausea. I am pleased to inform you that Misher's Herb Bitters very quickly restored me to health."

It is estimated that 30,000 southerners settled in New York after the war.

"There are so many frauds advertised for the hair," you say. So there are, but Parker's Hair Balm is not one of them. CANCER OF TONGUE!
A Case Resembling that of Gen. Grant.

Some ten years ago I had a scrofulous sore on my right hand which gave me great trouble, and under the old time treatment was healed up, and I supposed I was well. I found, however, it had only been driven into the system by the use of potash and mercury and in March, 1882, it broke out in my throat, and concentrated in what some of the doctors denominated cancer. I was placed under treatment for this disease. Some six or seven of the best physicians of the country had me at different times under their charge, among them three specialists in this line; but one after another would exhaust their skill and drop me, for I grew worse continually. The cancer had eaten through my cheek, destroying the roof of my mouth and upper lip, then attacked my tongue, palate and lower lip, destroying the palate and under lip entirely and half my tongue, eating out to the top of my left cheek bone and up to the left eye. From a hearty, robust woman of 150 pounds, I was reduced to a mere frame of skin and bones, almost unable to turn myself in bed. I could not eat any solid food, but subsisted on liquids and my tongue was so far gone I could not talk. The anguish of mind and the horrible sufferings of body which I experienced never can be revealed. Given up by physicians to die, with no hope of recovery upon the part of friends who sat around my bedside expecting every moment to be my last; in fact, my husband would place his hand on me every now and then to see whether I was alive or not, and at one time all decided that life was extinct, and my death was reported all over the country.

Such was my wretched and helpless condition the first of last October (1884), when my friends commenced giving me Swift's Specific. In less than a month, the eating places stopped and healing commenced, and the fearful aperture in my cheek has been closed and firmly knitted together. A progress of a new under lip is progressing finely, and the tongue which was almost destroyed is being recovered, and it seems that nature is supplying a new tongue. I can talk so that my friends can readily understand me, and can eat solid food again. I am able to walk about wherever I please without the assistance of anyone and have gained fifty pounds of flesh. All this and the blessing of a mortally afflicted Father, is due to Swift's Specific. I am a wonder and a marvel to all my friends, hundreds of whom have known my intense sufferings, and have visited me in my afflictions. While I am not entirely well, yet my gratitude is none the less devout, and I am confident that perfect recovery is now in sight. If any doubt these facts, I would refer them to Hon. John H. Traylor, state senator of this district, who is my neighbor, Dr. T. S. Brudfield, of LaGrange, Ga., or to any other persons living in the southern part of Troup county, Ga.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferers at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. leod&wly.

What They Demand.

By Telegram to THE SENTINEL.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 5.—At the second day's session of the Waterways Convention Ignatius Donnelly said the convention was an organized raid on the Treasury of the United States. We want cheap transportation by our waterways, and if we don't get it there will be a revolution in this country. The railroads have taken possession of the government of this country. Senator Eustis, of Louisiana, promised to voice the sentiments of the convention in Congress. W. H. Hatch, of Missouri, opposed the Hennepin Canal, as having no place in the House of Representatives or River and Harbor Bill. Clark E. Carr, of Illinois, Mr. Murphy, of Iowa, and ex-Governor Bross, of Illinois, all spoke in advocacy of the Hennepin Canal.

On the reassembling of the convention the report of the committee on resolutions was read. The resolutions demanded that the Mississippi and Missouri rivers, with their tributaries, be improved to the fullest extent of their capacity. Congress is urged to improve the Mississippi river, so that there will be six feet of water from the falls of St. Anthony to Cairo. The enlargement of the Illinois and Michigan Canal, and the extension of the same by the construction of a canal from the Illinois river at Hennepin to the Mississippi river at Rock Island, is demanded in the interest of cheap transportation, and the now immense and growing commerce of the Northwest. The improvement of various smaller rivers and streams in Wisconsin and Minnesota is also demanded. It was resolved that, in the opinion of this convention, an annual appropriation of $25,000,000 for the improvement of the rivers and harbors of the United States, and the construction of artificial waterways, would not be extravagant, and could be expended so as to enrich the country far beyond the amount appropriated.

The resolutions were adopted amid great applause.

John Altgelt, of Illinois, offered a resolution expressing the conviction that it was rank injustice for the section of the country east of the Alleghenies to receive the benefit of two-thirds of the River and Harbor Appropriations, when the region west of the Alleghenies possesses more than half the shipping of the country, and contributes more than three-fourths of the money expended by the Federal Government for public improvements. Judge Fryer, of New York, addressed the convention on the Florida ship canal, which, he said, was the route by which products should go to foreign markets, saving 1,600 miles and avoiding the dangers of the gulf stream. The amount of losses from the lack of this canal in ten years has been $75,000,000. The Mississippi Valley is the great feeder to this ship canal to be constructed. Then, after certain arguments made in favor of the upper rivers had been ordered made a part of the proceedings in the official report, the convention adjourned sine die.

What a Big Pile of Ecabules.

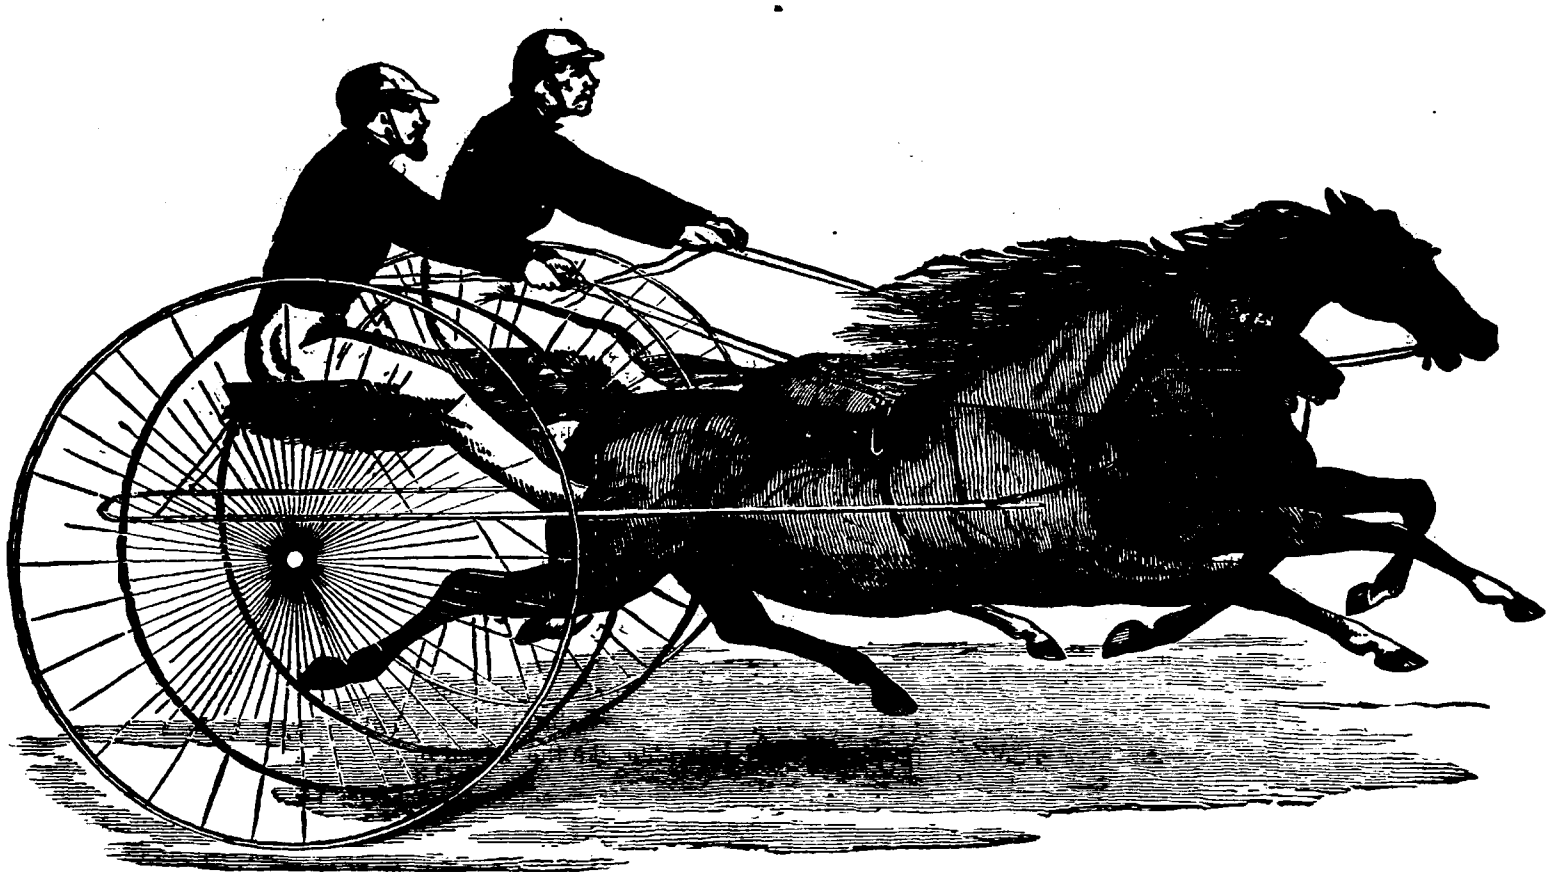

In the course of a year a healthy man who has a good appetite swallowed about three times his own weight of food! To dispose of this requires a system of wonderful and complicated internal machinery, every part of which must be in perfect order. When it is in order our food gives us pleasure. When it is out of order we endure the horrors of dyspepsia. Brown's Iron Bitters is the sworn foe of dyspepsia, and has made many a suffering mortal enjoy his dinner. Among hosts of others Mr. Henry Heinrich, Carondelet, Mo., writes, "Brown's Iron Bitters cured me of indigestion."

Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works,

No. 12 West Columbia Street Fort Wayne, Indiana.

To Painters

And others wanting First-class Paints: Do you know that you have in Fort Wayne a Manufacturer of Mixed Paint and Grinders of Colors, where you can buy your Paints from first hand instead of paying the middle man his profits, which are from 25 to 33 1/3 per cent. O. L. STARKEY, the Painter and proprietor of the Fort Wayne Paint and Color Works, came to Fort Wayne in April, 1886, and is identified as one of the old citizens who has helped build up Fort Wayne, and his knowledge of Paints and the composition of pigments to form different shades and tints is well-known to the public, and his long practical experience in painting gives him the knowledge of Paints that a mere dealer cannot have for he does not know anything about Paints, as he buys them sealed up and he cannot tell you what it takes to make this or that shade. All he knows is what the label on the cans says. Neither can he tell you shades that will or will not fade. By buying your Paints of O. L. STARKEY you can get all the information you want. I am making Liquid Paints in all shades and colors; also the same shades and colors in paste form, the same thickness as white lead and requires thinning down the same as white lead. In making the different shades my formulas are all registered giving the amount of each color it takes to form certain shades all thoroughly mixed together in the powder mills, then wet down and run through a mixing machine, and from there to the mills where it is all ground together making a pigment that cannot be made by hand. Call or send and get some of my sample cards of colors and tints; also see elevations of gothic houses colored up with four and five shades, which will give you a good idea how to paint and ornament the outside of your houses.

I say again, do not buy of the middle man if you want to save money. I will guarantee my prices and quality of goods with any manufacturer in the United States.

The Schools Open.

The public and parochial schools of the city opened this morning under the most favorable auspices. Little misses in new frocks and boys in new cloth hurried to the schools with new books, slates and pencils. The young ladies of the higher scholastic departments looked their sweetest and carried flowers to their favorite teachers. This week will be sort of preliminary to the regular course. Scholars will be assigned places and by next Monday the young idea will be in position to shoot. This is life's green spring for the young people and THE SENTINEL admonishes them to "improve each shining hour," for in that way are queenly women, noble men, presidents, statesmen and editors moulded in character to guide the world.

A FURIOUS FIRE.

It Threatens Whole Blocks for Over an Hour.

The Immense Ware Rooms of S. Bash & Co. Entirely Devastated—Gossip and Incidents of the Big Blaze.

Just before 7 o'clock last evening the quiet was broken by the shrill tap of the fire bell, followed by the muffled alarm of the gong within, summoning the department to box 62, at the Robinson, corner Harrison and Columbia streets. The SENTINEL representative stood in front of the engine house and followed the fire ladders to the ware house and grain elevator of S. Bash & Co., at Nos. 24 and 25 West Columbia street, where dense volumes of smoke issued from the front windows, the chimneys and sky lights of the building. In a few seconds and before the firemen could attach the hose to Lowry hydrants, a blaze shot from the upper story and made brilliant the heavens. Two streams of water were instantly directed into the windows and to the roof, but they seemed to only increase the fury of the angry flames. The smoke came out from every crevice, in dark, swift rolls, and with almost force enough to dash the water back into the faces of the firemen in the streets below. Nothing daunted by the progress of the flames, the department closed in on the fire and poured water onto the blazing timbers.

Then would the flames gather, smother for a while and shoot high into the air, carrying with them blazing cinders, which fell harmless near by, as no wind prevailed to waft them to destructive points. The fire was then steadily eating its way from the front store rooms to the elevator in the rear and it looked as though the immense grain receptacle was doomed. The west wall of the front room split into two parts from the roof to the foundation, about this time, and the fire shot in and out of this crevice with the swiftness of lightning. In the face of this threatening wall the firemen marched on it and sent a third stream to the south end of the elevator, the idea being to confine the destruction to the front part, which was divided from the elevator by a twelve-inch wall. Even this plan, well conceived and proper as it was, did not promise much good, for the fire had by this time obliterated the tin roof and the building could belkened into a huge blast furnace, the severity of which three streams of water but increased. Thus ran the fire for about an hour and a half, but the boys never relaxed an effort. Three men ascended the grain elevator from the inside, although smoke issued from it and their exit was threatened by fire from below. Their business was to locate the seat of the fire in front and direct the water to it. Occasionally their scheme succeeded, but again the flames would leap out with renewed rage, licking the top timbers and threatening not only the elevator, but the oil mill, belonging to the same firm in a new building, just adjoining it. There was a mortal dread of that calamity, because the burning of the oil mill meant annihilation of the surrounding blocks. In the meantime the fire had exhausted its material and then alone did the water assert its supremacy, so that in an hour and three quarters after the alarm bell tapped, the fire was under control and the elevator and oil mill were saved from total destruction. This did not end the work of the firemen, who all night long threw water on the smouldering ruins, which oft and on would blaze up afresh.

The firm is styled S. Bash & Co., and is composed of Mr. Sol. Bash and his sons, Messrs. Charley S., Winfield S. and Willis Bash, and Pete Smyser. The house does the most extensive grain, seed and commission business in Northern Indiana and the fire last night will not retard their trade as the elevator was started this morning, its big furnace blazed and S. Bash & Co. are at the old stand to buy anything in their line. This is enterprise.

A tour of the burned double building this morning revealed the destructive work of the fire. Most of the heavy cross timbers were in ashes and the second and third floors were completely gutted. In the building was stored rags, wool, feathers, seed and various other articles and commodities. The fire began in the second floor of the west side and originated from spontaneous combustion, as that is the only way the owners can account for it.

Messrs. Bash & Co. have a force of men cleaning out the burned building. They now attribute the fire to spontaneous combustion; in fact employees asserting hides in the basement of the building yesterday did not know of the fire until water was directed on it. "We will rebuild," said Mr. Bash as soon as the insurance men adjust our loss, which we now estimate at something less than $30,000. "We cannot tell exactly, but the damage will not exceed the sum named."

Besides the stock of S. Bash & Co., Peter Certia and Fred C. Koltz had 380 bushels of Bohemian oats stored in the ware room. This grain they valued at $10 a bushel or $3,800 altogether. Bash & Co. are responsible for the storage according to the terms of their agreement, but whether the insurance adjusters will pay that sum is a question, although Mr. Certia remarked, "We were as sure as daylight to get $10 for every bushel we had."

There was an insurance of $25,500 on the burned ware room, the elevator and the stock. But three days ago, $10,000 of this amount was placed on the building and stock, as the firm anticipated storing large quantities of grain for the winter trade. The insurance rate is very high and the firm paid dearly for the risk. The insurance is all in the agency of S. C. Lumbard and is divided as follows: Liverpool, London and Globe, $8,000 on the building; Fire Association of Philadelphia, $3,000 on stock; Royal, of London, $4,000; London Lancashire, $3,000; North British and Mercantile, $2,000; Niagara, of New York, $2,000; Home, of New York, $2,000 and the German American, $1,500.

The site of the present ruined ware room is ill fated. About the years 1855 and 1856 John E. Hill and Alexander M. Arblson conducted a ware house on the same spot. In the years named the building caught fire and was burned to the ground. Mr. Arblson lives in Michigan and will read THE SENTINEL's account of the fire last night with much interest.

SPARKS.

Here's our Chief Hilbrecht.

Win Bash runs a horse collar manufactory next to the oil mill.

John Liechner, Harry Hammell and the keepers of other public houses in the vicinity did great business.

Five hundred people looked at the fire and not a few of them were ducked by the exhaust or relief valve in the hose.

The girls were out in force and seemed to convert the occasion into a sort of picnic. They had bushels of fun in the crowd.

Charley Bash was the first member of the firm at the scene of the fire. He was cool, but feared the elevator would go.

Mayor Muhler, Captain Diehl, Hon. Jesse L. Williams and Captain Hetler stood in the street in front of the blazing building.

The insurance of $25,500 does not represent half the value of the ware rooms, elevator and stock. It is all the firm could afford to carry.

The grain elevator is built of pine wood save the brick wall that divides it from the ware room and slate siding and roof. It would have made a frightful fire.

If the Bash oil mill had caught fire the whole block might have been destroyed, counting on the paint store and drug store to go in the event of an explosion.

The water works acted like a charm and during the fire there was a pressure of 110 and 115 pounds to the square inch. An engine was added to the force when it became necessary to cover the high elevator with a stream. It would not be right to close without complimenting the heroic work of the fire department and THE SENTINEL will not cease to shower encomiums on Chief Hilbrecht and as gallant a set of firemen as ever pointed nozzles on a blaze. They worked quietly, but with pluck and a determination to win, which they did right nobly, too.

The Coming Fair.

There is already bustle at the fair grounds in anticipation of the races next week. Entries are already being booked for the speed department and the association will have to build additional cattle, hog and sheep pens to accommodate exhibitors. A gentleman will be on the ground every morning from 10 to 11 to assign stands and refreshment privileges.

Beware of Scrofula

Scrofula is probably more general than any other disease. It is insidious in character, and manifests itself in running sores, pustular eruptions, boils, swellings, enlarged joints, abscesses, sore eyes, etc. Hood's Sarsaparilla expels all trace of scrofula from the blood, leaving it pure, enriched, and healthy.

"I was severely afflicted with scrofula, and for over a year had two running sores on my neck. Took five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and consider myself cured." C. E. LOVING, Lowell, Mass.

C. A. Arnold, Arnold, Me., had scrofulous sores for seven years, spring and fall. Hood's Sarsaparilla cured him.

Salt Rheum

William Spies, Myra, O., suffered greatly from erysipelas and salt rheum, caused by handling tobacco. At times his hands would crack open and bleed. He tried various preparations without aid; finally took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and now says: "I am entirely well." "My son had salt rheum on his hands and on the calves of his legs. He took Hood's Sarsaparilla and is entirely cured." J. B. STANTON, Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—Later dispatches respecting the German occupation of Yap state that the Governor of that island wished to resist the landing of the German marines, but the commander of the Spanish man-of-war, San Quinton, refused to agree with the Governor, or to lend the latter any assistance. It is generally believed that the commander of the Spanish man-of-war, Velasco, which was expected at Yap on the 25th of August, carries with him energetic orders.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—The official report concerning the Cabinet Council held Saturday afternoon, at which King Alfonso presided, says the government can not now make public the measures decided upon, but that country may be assured they were of the energetic character. The report also says that the government decided that negotiations respecting outrages on an integral part of the Spanish Territory, are impossible.

MADRID, Sept. 7.—There were 1,238 new cases of cholera, and 797 deaths Saturday, throughout Spain.

Prussia has sanctioned the plan for a projected ship canal, which it is proposed to cut from Kiel on the Baltic, to a point on the lower Elbe, near Chuxhaven, in the German Ocean. The entire cost of the work is placed at 150,000,000 marks. The bill for the construction of the canal will be submitted to the Bundesrath after the vacancy.

M. Goblet, the French Minister of Public Instruction, has issued an official circular to the French Bishops, as to the attitude the church may adopt in the coming general elections in France. He notifies the clergy that they are perfectly free to exercise their own discretion about their own votes, but enjoins upon them neutrality concerning the votes of their parishioners, and forbids them to use any influence upon the people in favor of any party. The clerical press has received the circular with derision. The religious editors argue that indifference on the part of the church in the face of the two parties arrayed against each other for and against Christianity, would be not neutrality, but desertion from the faith.

Looks Like Business.

The court house hummed with life today. The grand jury is grinding out criminal indictments and the commissioners are at work on routine business. Judge S. M. Hinch, a little tanned but with a rosy hue from the eastern air, convened the superior court this afternoon and began to call cases for trial. Judge Edward O'Connor sat in the circuit court calm and collected but with a business air and pleasant surroundings. He admitted Edward Helme to citizenship, acquitted Grant Huter of adultery and gave John C. Pfeiffer a judgment for $251 against Peter Notstine et al.
